Dear Timothy -

Wonderful to see you + Barbara. My legal-size tablet is filled with data to enter on the computer this week - both exo- + esoteric! + Zach

When you're through with the record (LSP: Battle for the Mind) send it up to me in a record mailer (record stores sell them) or, if that's too much trouble, just drop it by the Dailey's bookshop 8216 Melrose (nr. Harper) + ask them to mail it to me. Billy, Karen + I will be listening to Joyful Wisdom, programs 1 + 2, in a few hours. (Probably alot more joyful than Battle for the Mind!)

Been thinking of including the song "Tomorrow Never Knows" by the Beatles (Revolver album) in the "6" section — does it not paraphrase The Psychedelic Experience? "Turn off your mind, relax, and float downstream" etc.

We ~~had~~ <sup>have</sup> an original photograph of DEVO in concert picturing Gerry Casale — maybe ~~it~~ <sup>he</sup> would inscribe it for Nonie? It's no exaggeration to say we are long-time DEVO fans — she & I both remember hearing them to the Rolling Stones' "Satisfaction" in the late 70s. ~~it~~ Also, what we need to know from Gerry C. is the following:

-3-

Title: The Human Highway (correct?)

One-line description: E.g., "one-hour video film" (with appearance by TL)

Producer(s): Devo? Neil Young?

Place & date: LA, 1983?

More (& more) soon.

Love from all,

Michael
